SPOTLIGHT PRODUCER

PULENTA

E S T A T E

“Pulenta Estate was founded in 2002 by brothers Hugo and Eduardo Pulenta, fourth-generation winemakers, with the goal of translating their family legacy and their father’s pioneering spirit into a modern, innovative winery focused on producing limited quantities of great wines. They have quickly carved out a reputation for precise, elegant wines across a range of varieties and premium price points. The estate consists of two vineyards located in key areas of Mendoza: Finca La Zulema in Agrelo and Viñedos Don Antonio in Los Arboles, a district of the Uco Valley. These contrasting vineyards have complex alluvial soils and distinct altitudes which, when blended, help give Pulenta wines their distinctive style, combining finesse, silky texture and elegance with the typical power and depth of fruit that is expected of Argentinian wines.

Pulenta’s wines are made up of three ranges: the youthful wines under the La Flor label, the Estate range has more complexity with the reds having spent 12 months in French oak, while the ‘Gran’ wines are the top of the range and sit among the finest wines from Argentina.”
